Mah Jong Handbook Eleanor Noss Whitney

Presents the complete official Mah Jong game to the beginner in such a way that an hour's reading will enable him to play it without difficulty. Will refresh the memory and improve the skill of players in America already familiar with one form or another of the game. Provides non-Oriental players a reference for their convenience in playing any of the varieties popular in the Orient. Part One is devoted to the official game. The beginner will find it necessary to read only the first three chapters in order to be able to start playing. Part Two covers all the alternatives, variations and additions to the official game likely to be of interest to American players. Part Three presents with utmost clarity fundamentals of strategy useful to all players.
