In a small garden every feature counts - from an herb bed to a patio plant pot. In this inspiring book, award-winning authors George Carter and Richard Bird offer projects for all aspects of the garden, from containers to construct and decorate to structures made from brick, stone, wood, and metal. Each project is illustrated and described in detailed, easy-to-follow instructions. The emphasis throughout is on making the most of your garden - however small - by matching innovative planting schemes with interesting garden features. Projects include a scented window box and a painted galvanized washtub, raised flower and vegetable beds, and a rose arch; decorative planting ideas embrace herb topiary and a sweet pea obelisk, plus inspiration for the kitchen gardener. Plenty of helpful practical information on key gardening topics, from pruning to pests, plus a list of useful addresses. Something for every gardener: 56 projects illustrated with step-by-step artworks.
