Diary of an African Fanatic Ismail Dramundru Ali

Diary of an African Fanatic is a submission of the daily challenges and perils the African endures on a daily basis. From the quietness of rural African villages to the roaring madness of the bustling metropolis of the west, the life and condition of the African is examined with defiant scrutiny.

It is my ardent attempt to present the African view to the world and present ideas and thoughts to make it easier for Africans to grapple with the daily issues that engulf their lives.

The message of hope, perseverance, and resilience is imported into this work to make a case for an African renewal. This book is a triumphant call for Africans to embrace a spirituality that is rooted in its history, confident of the fact that the eternal belongs to all.
