New European Furniture Design Lorenzo Soledad

A two volume set in a sturdy slip-case. Designed as a new and clearly ordered compilation, this work offers extensive information about the best European furniture design today, by analysing a wide range of pieces recently introduced into the international market. Its exceptional value lies not only in its having been intended as a useful manual for orientation in current European production, but also in its representing a unique base for learning about the products, companies and creators whose work is contributing towards defining the cultural essence of this century's end. Divided into ten broad, functionally ordered subjects - wardrobes & dressers, bedrooms, children's furniture, auxiliary furniture, kitchens, lighting, sofas & armchairs, shelving systems, tables and chairs - this work offers a detailed description of each product, with technical information, materials, measurements, all of the companies' addresses and details of the design process through the use of the designer's own sketches and models.
