Numerology is an ancient divination system first used by Pythagoras and developed in a variety of esoteric traditions. It is an important aspect of the the Kabbalah, the ancient Jewish mystical tradition. By adding together the numbers that make up our birthdate, we can find out our most significant numbers and so gain insight into all aspects of the personality; learning how people respond to work relationships and family, etc. When you add together the numbers that correspond to the letters of your name an even more detailed picture emerges. The author has taken this a step further and used her experience of numbers to teach people how to learn more about their souls. Using her system the reader can find keys to understanding why we are here on Earth, what our soul's purpose is and learn how we can fulfill our true destiny.
