Karen Mathes, former president of the American Bar Association: "Haltom's years in the trenches of family law have given her the experience and the skill to know how to help families solve their problems. She wisely shows how to anticipate what may come and avoid the pitfalls of what can follow." Pamela Reeves, past president of the American College of Civil Trial Mediators: "What I have learned in my years of practicing law and mediating cases is that people need help finding practical solutions to their problems. This book provides step by step guidance to help people find solutions to real world problems." Gary Hengstler, former ABA Journal Editor and Publisher: "As parenting roles shift in today's changing world, Haltom's approach offers single parents practical steps they can take with positive goals they can meet. Her personal experience with the Juvenile Court has equipped her for sharing her insights and encouraging families to work together.
