Two patients dead.

Coincidence?

Malpractice?

Or Murder?

When two of Dr. Gates McClure's patients die in quick succession, she's concerned. When she sees the autopsy reports, she's baffled. These people should not have died as they did. When one patient's widow and the news media blame Gates for the deaths, she's angry.

As Gates struggles to understand what killed her patients, what she missed in their diagnosis, she becomes the target of someone's hate. Is she the intended victim? Why would someone try to ruin her reputation and run off her patients? Her faith in God has seen her through adversity before. Now she needs His help to find answers before someone else dies unnecessarily.

Alton Gansky uses today's cutting-edge bioresearch headlines to fashion another exciting Ridgeline Mystery, following Marked for Mercy, the first book in the series. Alton brings an eclectic background to his writing, having worked in such fields as accounting, advertising, and architecture. Today he is senior pastor of High Desert Baptist Church in Phelan, California where he lives with his wife and three children. This is his sixth novel.
