Cadence of Care: Imagining a Transformed Advisor-Client Experience Tim Owings

In Cadence of Care, Tim Owings illustrates a new model for client care mined from his 40 years as a beloved ordained minister. Using compelling stories from his dynamic background, Owings shows how an individual's keen awareness of human behavior can create deeper, more meaningful interpersonal experiences. Professionals who integrate into their work the imaginative concepts depicted in this book will deepen relationships, find greater job satisfaction, and grow their business. When a person believes somebody gets it, they readily tell others. Put your finger on the pulse of each client's need to be validated and discover an innovative way to transform your practice as well as your life.
