Edwin H. Lundie ~ Five Decades ~ A Journey of Art & Architecture Peter OToole

This beautifully illustrated limited edition book chronicles the career of renowned architect Edwin Lundie with all of his full commissions, and many of his other original designs, annotated throughout with his own comments. You will discover just why the architecture of Edwin Lundie continues to resonate today.

It features over 450 high-resolution drawings and elevations acquired from his archive at the University of Minnesota, accompanied by over 325 color photographs presenting his life works, which vary in scale from cottages to country estates.

Also included are his nearly two dozen Scandinavian-inspired timber cabins, and Lutsen Lodge, on the North Shore of Lake Superior, as well as his wonderful designs for the buildings at the Minnesota Landscape Arboretum.

This fine-press book provides a personal insight into how Lundie found his niche in the world of architecture beginning with his first significant design, in 1915, to his final commission, completed in 1972, offering a visual presentation of his work that allows the architect to tell his own story.

Hardcover 9¾ x 12½ x 1

Printed and hardbound in Minneapolis

248 pages with over 450* Lundie sketches, renderings, elevations and plans, and over 350 color photographs

*Drawings and elevations from the University of Minnesota Northwest Architectural Archives
