Fiqh for beginners comprises elementary lessons on Islamic Theology and Jurisprudence of Imam Maliki's school of thought. The book was originally written in Arabic by the great Islamic scholar, Abdur-Rahman Sawmir, for primary school teachers in Tunisia. The book gains popularity among in the entire Muslim world, especially in the countries where the Maliki form of Islamic law is adopted. The author himself was a teacher. He taught in many Tunisian primary schools and understood the best method of teaching young children and his teaching methodology continues to be applied by Islamic studies till the present day. This book is an English version of the original work. The translator felt the need to provide this version to the English audience so that Muslim children in English speaking countries could benefit from this fantastic book.
