Belgian Abbey Beers Jef Van den Steen

Belgian beer expert Jef Van den Steen looks at the history and production of all thirty Belgian abbey beers

What are the remarkable stories about this authentic, labor-intensive product? In which way are Trappist beers different from the others? In Belgian Abbey Beers, Jef Van den Steen unravels the different stages in the production process of the beers and talks very passionately about the origin and development of the various breweries within the walls or under the license of the abbey. Each brewery is presented with practical information, different types of beer, and tips for tourists.

Photographer Andrew Verschetze magnificently captures the beers from the barrel to the glass.
