Frosty, the Yellow Frog Anne Giordano

Frosty, the Yellow Frog was not always yellow. However, one day not only did he lose his home, but he found himself in an unknown, cold place from which he could not escape. His story, written in rhyme, will enchant young children as they listen to or read how Frosty turned from green to yellow then back to green. Frog Facts listed at the end of the story will enhance children's understanding of and fascination with frogs.
