Desolate and alone after her beloved father's death, Miranda Hobbs takes her chances as a Mail Order Bride to a man she's never met. But fate has more in store for Miranda, and an attack by Indians on her way out west finds her suddenly in charge of a baby girl. When Miranda's intended husband rejects both her and the unexpected baby, she turns to shelter at the local convent, where she meets the handsome Dr. Graham. Dr. Wesley Graham has been helping care for the children of the church orphanage by himself, which has left him no time for love. That is, until the lovely Miranda Hobbs shows up at the church's door. As they work together to keep the children safe and fed, the good doctor also finds himself growing closer to this brave and kind young woman. But when her husband to be comes back to claim her, Dr. Graham must make a choice-- follow his heart, or honor a contract that came long before he and Miranda ever met.
