Twitter Marketing: Twitter Marketing IntroBooks

Twitter began as a micro-blogging platform which soon found, media, newspersons, political figures and celebrities talking about their official and personal lives. For a lot of people, Twitter became the source of news and it immensely changed the way celebrities communicated with their fans. But that was not where it stopped, it continued to change the way people shared their reactions for the products and services that they used, to the music they listened to and the movies they watched.
