Noah sA rk. Down in the bright comfortable rooms on the side toward the sun, she lived herself ;above lived Miss Falbe with her brother ;and up in the garret there were only two stories in attic rooms, under the stairs and back of the chimney-pots lived a number of unclean animals which went under the common title, the gang. Madam Speckbom was not only a wise woman; she was literally a klog-kone or quack as well; for she was a doctor or, as the regular doctor called her, a quack. But that did not trouble Madam greatly; she had her good, sure practice, and her skill brought her money and professional triumphs as well.
