Seeing Japan – Through the eyes of a Jamaican expat offers an inside look into the life of a Jamaican expat living and working in Japan. Author/Blogger Dave O. Collymore reveals his insightful and sometimes irreverent homage to Japan. Born of the author's most popular blog posts, this personal journey through this mystical and mysterious land is told through real world experiences and offers historical facts that tell the story of this beautiful country alongside anecdotal evidence that are sure to pique your interest in embracing new cultures. Discover little known facts and long-held beliefs of those who call Japan home. Explore regional, delectable cuisine and customs. Become acquainted with how other cultures heavily influence Japanese culture and how those influences have become more mainstream, surprising expats upon arrival. Chock-full of valuable information that no travel agent would dare mention, this travel memoir will inspire you to move outside of your comfort zone and embrace life by immersing yourself in faraway lands and cultures.
