Cool, calm and collected or simply passive and unmoved? Under the Mask of the Libra Man is a cautionary tale of dating the 'Thinking Man' and the masks we all wear within the first year of romance.

Relationship 'experts' will have you believing you can micromanage to outcome of your love life to the grave. The truth? Luck and timing factor heavily beyond the first year of any relationship but the setup for long-term commitment is crucial. Within those 12 months are 5 key steps where you want to learn to move a man away from his thoughts and driven to pure instinct and action.

Using the live polls, emails and psychological background from casual and hardcore astrology surfers on the Blackbook blog, we capture the 5 key stages to break through the pitfalls of modern dating in text messaging, instant messaging, social media and long distance relationships - all avenues with which to run into the infamous Libra disappearing act or hot-and-cold behaviour.

Under The Mask is the first in a series of guides hijacking pedestrian, factory-made relationship advice to cut to the chase of how the mind can grow to see any man or woman as more attractive with every passing day, when to make sure your promises in words align with your body language and psyche to breed trust, and the two key traits beyond a first year romance that deliver 94% certainty in stable relationships. This is timeless social psychology, mythology and Libran flavour mixed into a 5 step guide to seduce the male charmer of the zodiac.
