In Homocidal 3: Final Destination, Tonic and Stuart struggle while trying to adjust to life in the Federal Penitentiary. On Tonic's first day in the pen he is surprised to learn an old running buddy, Juke is his cellmate. Juke join forces with the other inmates who seeks vengeance for deaths of their love one's Tonic killed. They vow to make Tonic's stay a living hell. Will Tonic make it out of the penitentiary alive? On the other side of the penitentiary, Stuart has his own daily struggles. Mentally Stuart is losing it. Although a strong educated physician, he's not sure if he could make it through this situation alive. On Stuart's first day while walking through the cellblock, he gains unwanted attention from fellow inmates who seeks to make him their boy. Will Stuart crack under pressure and become a boy? After turning her brother and his partner in, ten year old Paris and her twins ends up in foster care. Her journey begins in a crowded group home where she regrets turning her brother in. In this group home, Paris is forced to care for her twins independently. Now in her own prison, Paris struggles to find her place in a house of wolves. When her social worker finally finds her a foster home, she reverts back to her old ways and wreaks havoc in the lives of the innocent. While on a path of self-destruction, Paris meets fifteen year old Scott, her new foster brother, mentor and love interest. Will Paris conniving ways catch up to her? Will Scott be the death of Paris?
