When Chris and Steve first became grandparents they were over the moon! They knew their grandchildren were the sweetest, smartest and cutest kids ever. In other words, they were perfect! Feeling so proud and full of love they wanted to be perfect too, but as they all found out one day when Poppi lost his temper, no one is perfect! Christine Allen wrote this book from her own experience as a new grandparent. It is a true story, and all the characters are real. The grandkids, Tenley and Ryder live in La Pine, Oregon, while Christine and Steve reside in Newport, on Oregon's beautiful central coast.
