Felicity Floo Visits the Zoo E.S. Redmond

Follow a sniffly girl on a hands-on trip to the zoo, and you'll find one miserable menagerie — and a comical ode to the virtue of tissues.

ALL OF THE ANIMALS DOWN AT THE ZOO
ARE SNUFFLING AND SNORTING AND SNEEZING ACHOO.

Why are the hyenas crying boo-hoo? And what gave the rhino a sickly green hue? It starts when Felicity Floo wipes her red, runny nose and transfers the goo. . . . Kids will be happily grossed out to follow the icky trail as she pets one hapless, bleary-eyed creature after another. With whimsical, stylized illustrations showing Felicity's handprints on every spread, this cautionary tale will have readers roaring out loud — and racing off to wash their hands!
