GEMS of Advaita Vedanta - philosophy of unity: A Sanskrit Reader with selected significant philosophical excerpts from the Upanishads, Bhagavad Gita, Vivekacudamani and others. John Denton
Gems of Advaita is a selection of excerpts from important Upanishads (containing the traditional philosophical exposition of the traditional scriptures of India), the Bhagavad Gita (which expresses the heart of this philosophy), the Vivekacudamani (which expresses the philosophy and instruction for realisation as seen by the great Shankara who re-established it in the 8th century AD.) and others. All entries are in English transliteration and word by word translation. An ideal daily reader for students of Sanskrit and of Philosophy. This version has been formatted for earlier versions of kindle readers by removing the devanagari (Indian) script and re-formatting)
