In Grandpa Ray's Adventure Stories for Children, Ray Hankes tells fun, scary, and humorous stories to children. Based on tales he extemporaneously recited to his own grandchildren, Grandpa Ray's Adventure Stories for Children explores the great outdoors and an entire, wild cast of wonderful characters. Two birds build a new nest in an old barn while watching out for a wily cat. A frisky squirrel is nearly undone by his love for red Gummy Bears, and a one-eared kicking mule in California has a real adventure. Children will love the delightful tales, filled with all kinds of animal lore and adventure, but adults will also appreciate the wise and winsome lessons in each tale. Beautifully written and warmly told, Grandpa Ray's Adventure Stories for Children proves that life is an adventure, and family is the most important thing of all. These spectacular stories prove that even when life thrusts a storm in your path, with hope, ingenuity, and love, you can conquer any adversity.
