Sir Rayland, a man of many lies held for both king and kingdom; a man known for his courage, honour, strength and cunning. a man that believed only in the present of serving his king. The past was buried deep enough to never see daylight again, and the future held nothing but darkness and death. That was until he met a dark eyed beauty who nurtured his senses, enticed his heart of a home far away from intrigue and lies, and teased his tightly leashed passions. Lady Nicole of Scotland is ordered to attend her mother in the province of Anjou, never believing her future lay beyond her childhood home. A twist of fate lands her in the arms of a stranger; a man she believed to be cruel in nature as he held her captive and hidden from the outside world. Escape was her only recourse, but somehow her roads kept leading back to him. Fragile alliances were made under the sinister and powerful threat of the kingdoms.
