The sons of Jordan Birchmier, Christian and Jordan Jr., have been at war with one another for years. When older brother, Christian, caught his younger brother behaving badly and had their father strike Jordan from the will, the younger Birchmier swore to get revenge.

That plot for revenge tangled up the life of innocent Willow, a black woman from a poor family that basically won the lottery when she got a job at Birchmier and Sons.

Photos of her having drunken sex emailed to Christian dash all of her hopes and dreams, though, when they are used to blackmail him into firing her.

When Jordan and Willow meet, lust and a mutual desire for revenge cause them to bond. But the plan that they hatch ends with a shocking twist Willow never sees coming. Do you think you can handle the scandal?
