First and Goal (Moving the Chains) (Volume 1) Kata Cuic

Eva Papageorgiou has one goal: to make it through her senior year of high school unseen and unscathed. But when her plans to stay out of the limelight are derailed by rampant rumors, she's forced to change tactics. She'll keep everyone at arm's length. Especially boys. So when she's partnered up in class with the hot as hell varsity quarterback, she pushes and pushes. Until he pushes back. Rob Falls just wants to fit in. With his teammates, with his friends, with everyone. His image as the quintessential jock makes him feel like a fraud. Especially since it's the only reason all the girls at school want him, except the one girl he dreams about. When he's forced to tutor the class pariah, he realizes it's time to get in the game instead of faking it. She's going to help him get exactly what he wants, whether she knows it or not. Life doesn't come with a playbook, but Rob knows this could be the most important play he'll ever make. First and Goal is book one in The Moving the Chains series. It ends on a cliffhanger. The Moving the Chains series is recommended for mature readers (age 16+) due to strong language, sexual content, and potential emotional triggers.
