FBI Agent Matt Collins' sister, Julia, has a turbulent, stormy marriage to the president of the one of the nation's largest pharmaceutical companies. Julia has endured physical, mental, and verbal abuse as well as adultery from her husband over the years. Then one day Julia saw too much.... Once the drug lords find out Matt's sister is the snitch, victims start adding up and now Julia is their next target for death. Matt and his team work against time to save his sister's life; running coast to coast using the subtle clues left behind by one of the murder victims, striving at all cost to keep his family safe from a dangerously close, faceless murderer. But when Matt has a radical awakening, he realizes only God can save his family and him now. Matt can only trust God when the killer, comes knocking at his sister's safe house.... and he is on the wrong coast.... While Michele has no formal training to write, God has gifted her with a very vivid imagination and she has written many stories since her teens. She has won the Editor's Choice Award for a poem published in the "Captured Moments" anthology by the National Library of Poetry and worked in radio as an air talent as well as writing and producing commercials for twelve years. Currently, she works as an Human Resources Assistant and is working towards degrees in Criminal Justice and Forensic Science. Michele resides in West Virginia.
