Aung San Suu Kyi, Malala Yousafzai, Mother Teresa, Shirin Ebadi - women who have rewritten history, battled against all odds, fought social and gender discrimination and championed the cause of justice. The Nobel Peace Prize has been a symbol of recognition and appreciation of their remarkable achievements, their courage and their ability to inspire hope in others. Human rights activist Supriya Vani puts together five years of research and interviews with the recipients of the Nobel Peace Prize to bring to life this outstanding collection of short biographies.
