Gustav Klimt 2012 Calendar (Wall Calendar) Gustave Klimt

In 1899 a critic called one of Gustav Klimt's portraits “the most beautiful picture ever painted by an Austrian.” Only a year or so later, Klimt (1862–1918) was excoriated for the brash new style he was developing. Klimt's early portraits are firmly in the Academic mode; they point up his technical brilliance more than they evoke the soul of his subjects. His later paintings come close to Expressionism but are notable in the depth of their emotional subjectivity: the faces are rendered with tender clarity, while the bodies float, blur, and evanesce into shimmering abstract forms. Twelve of Klimt's alluring portraits of women are presented here.

Size: 12 x 13 in.; opens to 12 x 26 in. Printed on FSC certified paper with soy-based inks
