How to Be Santa Claus Nick Kelsh

Something wonderful happened to Nick Kelsh last Christmas Eve. He became Santa Claus. Donning appropriate red suit, boots, and beard, he knocked on a friend's front door and brought magic to the gathering. "Who are you?" they all asked, and he told them the truth: "I am Santa Claus." When the festivities were over, Kelsh knew that he had discovered the greatest gift of all - and now he'd like to share it with you. In How to Be Santa Claus, Nick Kelsh shows you how simple it is to become the Big Man. Written in the same witty, user-friendly style that characterizes his enormously successful How to Photograph Your Baby and How to Photograph Your Family, this lighthearted manual takes you step-by-step through the process. It all begins with the beard; no cheap cotton floss here - go for a good one, advises Kelsh. And no flimsy boots, either - remember, Santa is a working man with many miles to travel in a single night. Once you have the outfit down, it's time to assume the persona. Ho, ho, ho? No, no, no! A real Santa has a laugh hearty enough to make his substantial belly jiggle. Kelsh even provides a complete Santa dossier to help you answer such pesky questions as "Where's Rudolph?" How to Be Santa Claus is the perfect book to melt away holiday stress. Spend a day as Santa and you will learn - as Kelsh did - that a thoughtful gesture is the greatest gift of all, for giver and receiver both.
